

Do you want to help your students with their organization and planning skills?

The Reading and Stoneham SEPAC groups Present:

Executive Function in School Students

A workshop by Sarah Ward, M.S., CCC/SLP
Speech and Language Pathologist

A popular speaker, Sarah Ward regularly presents on the topic of executive functions to a variety of professional and parent organizations. Her innovative and effective approaches have been featured on National Public Radio and she is the recipient of multiple awards, including the Massachusetts General Hospital Expertise in Clinical Practice Award and Faculty in Excellence Award. In addition to working directly with students in her private practice, she has presented to and consulted with more than 450 public and private schools in Massachusetts and across the United States and internationally on how to implement executive function strategies into the classroom setting.

Learn how to:

- 1) Create a homework space
- 2) Organize personal and school materials
- 3) Record assignments and create a schedule
- 4) Manage time, tasks and complete long term projects

March 20, 2018, 7-9pm
Parker Middle School Auditorium

Parents, teachers and professionals: Come learn how to work with and coach students to effectively balance and manage academic work, time, and materials. You will walk away with many simple, ready-to-use strategies and tools for teaching children how to develop independent executive function skills.