

Reading Bi-Weekly Update

March 30, 2017

The Friends of the Reading Public Library

Baking for Friends Fundraiser

On April 1st, The Friends of the Reading Public Library are hosting Baking for Friends, a fun-filled event for the whole family. Book-themed baking displays (cakes, pies, cupcakes and cookies) will be exhibited all around the newly renovated library. The baked goods will be raffled off with the corresponding books at approximately 3:00 PM.

Through the day there will be several activities for children and adults. Susan Fitzgerald and Jean Sword will lead cake decorating workshops for children and teens in the morning. Celebrated author and nutritionist Elizabeth Ward will present her program, “How Sweet it is: Easy Low- and No-added Sugar Goodies.”

Afternoon activities include a presentation by noted children’s author and illustrator Scott Magoon as well as a cake decorating demonstration by bakers from the Stop & Shop in Reading. There will be a scavenger hunt throughout the library for children of all ages. The event lasts from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM on April 1st at the Reading Public Library, 64 Middlesex Avenue, in Reading.

For more information visit www.friendsofreadinglibrary.org

Do you care about Reading senior citizens?

Join us for a

Community Forum

about

Elder Services programs in the Town of Reading

Wednesday, April 19, 2017

1:00 pm or 5:30 pm (attend one of the sessions)

The Pleasant Street Center

49 Pleasant Street
Reading, MA

*Facilitated by the UMass
Boston Gerontology Institute*

Voice your opinion, share your ideas

Afternoon or evening session

*(Ice cream bar after the 1:00 pm meeting)
(Lite dinner at the 5:30 pm meeting)*

RSVP by April 12 to Elder Services Administrator, Jane Burns at (781) 942-6658

*Complimentary van service is available for the first meeting at 1:00 pm
call (781) 942-6794*

Questions: Have questions about all the activity going on around town? Just ask and we will find the answer!

To subscribe to this Bi-Weekly Update: Send an email request to mknight@ci.reading.ma.us requesting that you be added to the Bi-Weekly Update.