

Fall Open House at Creative Arts

Creative Arts invites the community to create, play, sing, listen and learn about their community arts school at the Fall Open House on Saturday, September 7 from 10am to 2pm. Located in Reading Center, Creative Arts is a vibrant theater, music and visual arts school which offers private lessons and classes for ALL ages and ALL abilities year-round. More information can be found at www.weteachcreativearts.org.

This is a free, community-wide event! Open House visitors can look forward to many engaging activities while touring the school, enjoying refreshments and chatting with staff, instructors and students families. Offerings include free Demo Classes (Creative Music for Tots), Instrument Playing Zoo (Violin, Cello, Guitar, Clarinet, Flute & more!), Open Art Studio with projects to make and take, a Broadway Sing Along and Faculty Performances. The schedule of events will be posted on our website and available the day of the open house.

Creative Arts main entrance is at 32 Lowell St/Rt. 129, behind Reading Town Hall and has a free parking lot. A second entrance is located near 48 Sanborn St. and street parking is available. The facility is wheelchair and stroller accessible and handicap parking is available at both of these entrances.
