Walkable Reading and the Trails Committee

6th Annual Winter Walk

January 29, 2017

Winter has a lot to offer - fresh air and bright, clear skies. Come out for a breath of fresh air while getting some exercise by joining Walkable Reading and Reading's Trails Committee on a Winter Walk in Bare Meadow on January 29 at 1 PM. See one of Reading's wonderful places and have fun exploring the winter woods.

The walk is suitable for both children and adults. Meet at the Mattera Cabin, 1481 Main Street. From there a gentle slope leads up to the Meadow and a viewing platform. From the top of the meadow, paths lead down and across to wooded trails.

Be sure to wear appropriate clothing and footwear for walking in the winter woods. If there is enough snow on the ground strap on your snowshoes! We might even find tracks of some of the critters that frequent the area. If you have binoculars, bring them along – you never know what we might see.

After the walk, join us back at the Cabin for hot chocolate and cookies.

Check for any updates on Walkable Reading's Facebook page. If you have questions, you can email us at walkablereading@comcast.net.

Walkable Reading's mission is to encourage and enhance increased pedestrian and non-motorized access to the community for all, through education, promotion, and advocacy.

Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening

Robert Frost

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of the easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark, and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

Questions: Have questions about all the activity going on around town? Just ask and we will find you the answer!
