Once
Upon a time.

all of the sweetest princesses gathered together to dream up the most magical tea party.

They wanted all of their smallest friends to attend. They planned for the most magical gathering, creating new games and dreaming up new crafts. They imagined flute and trumpets playing and girls twirling in satin gowns.
They gathered their best recipes for muffins and treats until they were satisfied that this tea party would be the best. Now they just need to complete the guest list.
