Jams for Jake

Press Release

EVENT DATE CHANGE

Jams for Jake

READING, MA October 27, 2017: Due to a forecast of heavy rain and high winds, we are moving the date of the Jams for Jake community fundraiser to Sunday November 12th, 2017. We will be needing to secure volunteer staff for the new date, and reconfigure our musical artist lineup. Content, vendors, presenting speakers, gift drawing, and auction will all remain as originally planned. All information will be updated across social media portals (Facebook, Instagram, GoFundMe) and our website, www.JamsForJake.com. Please e-mail jamsforjake@gmail.com with any additional questions.
